One of the things brought out in the suit which purports to show the unfairness of the attitudes of organized ball is the refusal of the New York Giants to answer the Brooklyn club's letter in regard to Rube Marquard. Mr. Ward stated that he had a long talk with Marquard in Chicago and the tall southpaw told him that he would play southpaw told him that he would pla with Brooklyn next season or not at all

Cline Defeats Demarest In Final Match Here

Harry Cline managed to save his face Calvin Demarest in the Champion Bil liard Players' League, and is today possessed of a single win out of the three trial matches held at the Leader Chess Champion Frank Marshall defeated twenty-six of the twenty-seven players who opposed him in simultaneous exhibitions at the Riggs Bank building yesterday in the afternoon and night sessions. J. E. B. Ray is the only Washingtonian who is today beasting of having defeated the titleholder. Ray was one of the eleven players who tackled Marshall in the afternoon.

Sixteen men took the board in the night exhibition, and all were defeated. Dr. Harvey W. Wiley played a fine gauge, and could have made a draw or a win had he stayed at his board. Champion Marshall complimented him for his game. E. B. Adams was the player who survived longest in the night's play. the evening.

The night's match was productive of good billiards, and after the match Demarest gave an exhibition of fancy shots and finger billiards which pleased the crowd. The score in the final match was 300 to 270. Cline averaged 17.6, while Demarest's figures were 15.8. Cline's high run was 36 and Demarest's
